

BAPTIST HEALTH SYSTEM SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

VOCATIONAL NURSING PROGRAM San Antonio, Texas

Desire a career in nursing?

In one year you may join a health care team of individuals that will be assisting people of all ages across the life span, from a newborn baby to an elderly client and all ages in-between. Yes, it is a one-year program. Successful outcome of this one-year program is State licensure to practice vocational nursing. Many of our graduates continue their education in nursing and apply for Advanced Placement in the Associate of Applied Science in Nursing.

Vocational Nursing Program

Vocational nursing courses are offered in both day and evening/weekend format (please see start dates).

Day courses are offered Monday through Friday, but on rare occasions a Saturday meeting may be scheduled. Hours of attendance for classroom experiences are usually from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Clinical experiences are usually from 6:45 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Evening/weekend courses are offered Monday through Saturday. Monday through Friday classes and labs are generally scheduled from 3:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., Saturday lectures from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and Saturday clinicals from 6:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Working While Enrolled in Program

Students enrolled in the vocational nursing program have maintained both full-time and part-time employment. Each student should evaluate their learning style and schedule study time accordingly.

Vocational Nursing Opportunities

The Licensed Vocational Nurse has many opportunities in the health care industry. Some employment areas may include the acute care setting (Hospitals), long-term care (Nursing Homes), Physicians Offices, Home Health, Clinics, and School Nursing to name a few. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the demand for Licensed Practical and Licensed Vocational Nurses is expected to grow 12% from 2016 to 2026. (www.bls.gov/ooh/)
